

34-44-203 Revocable offer of commission.

If a principal makes a revocable offer of a commission to a sales representative, the sales representative is entitled to the commission agreed upon under the business relationship if:

- (1) the principal revokes the offer of commission;
- (2) the sales representative establishes that the revocation is for a purpose of avoiding payment of the commission;
- (3) the revocation occurs after the principal obtains an order for the principal's product or service through the efforts of the sales representative; and
- (4) the principal's product or service that is the subject of the order is provided to and paid for by a customer.
